

Joohee Jung

Associate

Ph. 323-692-5439

jjung@karlinpeebles.com

Joohee Jung is an associate at Karlin & Peebles. Her practice focuses on advising high net worth individuals and closely-held businesses on a broad range of domestic and international income tax matters, including international tax and estate planning, foreign and outbound investments, and cross-border transactions. She also advises clients on U.S. federal income tax compliance and reporting obligations.

Bar Admissions

District of Columbia

Professional Experience

Before joining Karlin & Peebles, Joohee worked at a Big Four Accounting Firm in Los Angeles, San Francisco, and the D.C. metro area. She specialized in implementing complex international transactions and cross-border tax planning for multinational clients in many industries, including technology, entertainment, real estate, services, and consumer products.

Education

Indiana University Maurer School of Law, Juris Doctor, May 2015

Georgetown University Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service, Bachelor of Science in International Politics, December 2008

Languages

English and Korean